Many New Cases In Circuit Court. In Judge Gear's court, the taking of testimony in the case of the Territory vs. Otakichi, charged with assault with a weapon, proceeded all morning. Judge Jerome B. Fisher of Jamestown, N. Y., was a visitor at court and occupied the bench with Judge Gear for a time. A bill in equity to remove cloud upon title was filed by J. B. Atherton vs. the Wahilawa Sugar Co., Ltd., today. The complaint sets forth that the defendant became possessed of a leasehold in 2000 acres of land by assignment from John Emmeluth, leasee from the owner, George Galbraith. Complaint also sets forth that plaintiff became owner by assignment from George Galbraith of all rents reserved to him in his lease to John Emmeluth. It is alleged that the defendant failed to pay an installment of rental due, November 1, 1900, and that by the terms of the lease, right to further possession of the premises ceased at that time. The plaintiff has taken possession of the property and brings this action to compel a cancellation of record of the lease. In the estate of J. C. Riordan order was made by Judge Humphreys this morning fixing Friday, May 31, as the date for a hearing on the final accounts of L. H. Dee, administrator. The accounts filed show a balance of $836.05 on hand. C. Lal Young has commenced an action in ejectment against Sophie Kohuole and Chun Kin Tong, alleging that they have wrongfully taken possession of nine acres of plaintiff's land in Ill of Luluku, Kaneohe. W. W. Thayer, for the Honolulu Stock Yards Co., Ltd., has brought suit against W. C. Achi, for the sum of $478.15 for debt. Complaint in an action for ejectment has been filed by L. Ah Pau vs. Wong Kwai and Wong Hong Yuen, charging defendants with being in wrongful possession of a parcel of seven acres of land, known as the Ill of Palalupu at Kailua. The suit of John Bright vs. the administrators of the Kapiolani Estate was dismissed by Judge Humphreys at chambers this morning.
